The Messenger

And I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" Then I said, "Here am I! Send me." -Isaiah 6:8

With "harvest season" under way in our corner of the world, I have been thinking about the meaning of stewardship as it relates to the possessions we have and the product of our hard work. I found Martin Luther's Small and Large Catechisms helpful on this topic. Martin Luther's Catechisms help us to see the connection between our faith and our daily lives. Most importantly, they show us how God has called us into community with God, others, and what God has given and done for us. This community of relationships is what stewardship is; the relationship we have with who we are and what we possess.

Luther explains that the Apostle's Creed shows us who God is and what God does for us. God creates (First Article), God redeems (Second Article), and God sustains (Third Article). In explaining these articles, Luther explains how generous our God is. God has given us gifts in creation, gifts in redemption, and gifts in sustenance by the Holy Spirit. Everything that we have is from God. What is ours actually belongs to God.

In explaining the Ten Commandments, Luther explains how trust in God comes first before everything else. In God we find life, goodness, and help. The commandments show us God's will for humankind which can be summarized in loving God and loving others. We do this by devoting our lives and possessions to service to God and to others. We also do this through the relationships God has given us in the world and in the Church that God has gathered us into.

Our response then, is to use what we possess in ways that thank and praise God. Luther writes, "...because everything we possess, and everything in heaven and on earth besides, is daily given, sustained and protected by God, it inevitably follows that we are in duty bound to love, praise, and thank [God] without ceasing, and, in short, to devote all these things to [God's] service, as [God] has required and enjoined in the Ten Commandments."

- Pastor Tawanda Murinda

Greetings from the Worship Team!

Hallelujah! We have a pastor!!

We were able to start September with Pastor Tawanda back AND we have since voted to have him join us as our PASTOR!! What a great start to September. He was also able to preside over First Communion. What a blessing.

We had a great outdoor service on September 13th voting Pastor Tawanda as our called Pastor and he accepted. NOW we can get a little closer to normal. We are so glad to enter the Fall and Advent Season with a more clear direction. Please join us in our services following Covid-19 guidelines. We are wearing masks, but are able to participate in the service along with singing (which sounds great EVEN through the masks)!

There is a sign-up sheet to assist with services now posted inside the front door. The assisting is MUCH easier, so please take advantage.

The acolyte signup is on the St. Matthew's website, and I have listed those that have signed up on the sheet too. Please come 10-15 minutes early so that the candles are lit before we go live. THANK YOU TO ALL THAT HAVE SIGNED UP!

Tech help is listed also, and PLEASE sign up so that we can continue to go live. We do need your help (all you techies)! Josh Faul has a google doc that is being used to sign up.

Thank you to all that make this service special! We would welcome new team members.

A message from your Council President.....

While this year has been a very challenging year, a lot has been achieved at St. Matthew's. After a long journey, we finally were able to vote Pastor Tawanda Murinda as our call pastor. Pastor Tawanda has done many great things in a short time. I believe if you have had a chance to either meet Pastor Tawanda or listen to his sermons via our Livestream, you have seen why he was voted as our pastor. He brings a great amount of energy & enthusiasm to our church and I look forward to seeing how St. Matthew's grows under his leadership.

I would also like to share some Thank You's.

--Thank you to the church council for all the extra meetings they attended during our search for a pastor and throughout the pandemic. They certainly had more meetings than expected.

--Thank you to Roy Olson for keeping the church grounds mowed and trimmed weekly, to Duane and Chris Nass for keeping the church clean and sanitized and to Jamie Bischoff for keeping our accounts organized and issuing payments at times on short notice.

--Thank you to Val Uhlir for keeping things so organized for worship whether it's been in-person or online. Thank you to Bre Berberich and the education team for having our education program ready to roll once the school year started.

--Thank you to the call committee led by Scott Landa that remained dedicated to finding a call pastor for St. Matthew's. It wasn't easy during the pandemic but they did great work.

--Thank you to Pastor Tawanda for believing in St. Matthew's. He had a chance to take a full call position on the same day he interviewed to be our interim pastor and he believed in what was going on at St. Matthew's.

--Thank you to the congregation for all your understanding and patience as we made decisions about closing and then re-opening. These were very difficult decisions but we always kept in mind that we were taking the information we were getting to make the best decisions for the health and safety of the congregation. And also Thank You to the congregation for continuing to make their offerings so the church could stay on solid financial footing.

--Thank you to Pastor Tawanda and Wade Strande for getting our church live-streaming up and running. This was so very important to keep our congregation connected while we had to close the doors to St. Matthew's.

--And a final Thank You to Vione Jordheim. As many of you know and everyone should know that we could never have made it from the time Pastor Amy left to the time we voted on Pastor Tawanda without Vione. Not only has she held the church together in the 10+ weeks we were without a Pastor, she has been extremely important in making Pastor Tawanda's transition smooth and efficient. We are so incredibly lucky to have Vione working at St. Matthew's.

Blessings and continued health and safety to all of you, your family & friends,

Paul Strande

St. Matthew's Lutheran Church invites you to join us for our second annual Fall Book Study! This year we will be doing things remotely, utilizing Zoom for meeting times and a Facebook group to interact with each other. This fellowship opportunity is open to all in Thompson, regardless of church membership status. This year we will be reading Loving Well in a Broken World: Discover the Hidden Power of Empathy by Lauren Casper. We chose this book with the intent to have important conversations around the divided world we're living in, get out of our comfort zones and step away from judgement.

Please register here: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/MGZQYVV>

Our world is becoming increasingly divided, fearful of other, and isolated. How can we live out our call to love our neighbors as ourselves if we can't empathize with them? We can't.

Together (virtually), we will use the six-week study guide as a launching pad for discussing, learning, and growing in empathy and love with one another. Each week focuses on a specific way we can cultivate empathy in our lives, but first it's important to understand what empathy is. Empathy is the ability to see another's pain, understand the cause of it, and to join them in their feelings. It's a three-step cycle of seeing, understanding, and joining.

Loving our neighbor requires a barefoot moment, a vulnerable stepping out of the known into the unknown so we can walk around for a while in someone else's shoes. In each week's lesson, you'll find an inspirational quote, a supporting scripture, a brief story called "barefoot moments", ideas for immediate action that you can try that week, an idea or two for some more long-term actions to take, and resources for further learning. There is also room to journal your own thoughts, feelings, and action ideas.

Registration to participate in this book study is open through Sunday, October 4th and books will be provided by the fellowship team of St. Matthew's. Schedule is as shown below and all meeting times will go from 7-8 PM.

- Sunday, October 11 - Chapters 1, 2 & 3
- Sunday, October 18 - Chapters 4, 5 & 6
- Sunday, October 25 - Chapters 7, 8 & 9
- Sunday, November 1 - Chapters 10, 11 & 12
- Sunday November 8 - Chapters 13, 14 & 15
- Sunday, November 15 - Chapters 16 & 17 + whole book overview

Thanks to everyone who lends a hand for making the ministry at Saint Matthew's happen! Here are a few folks we would like to thank this month! We apologize if we miss anyone!

The church mouse would like to thank:

- Bre B for all of her work to organize Education for our kids
